DAVID BELLAMY PAINTS THE COTSWOLDS – Day Course

SATURDAY 6th October 10am – 4pm

Windrush Village by David Bellamy

David will instruct a group of watercolour students on landscape painting in the Cotswolds. If the weather is fine, he will take the group out of doors to demonstrate plein air painting techniques – the best way to learn how to improve your painting. Otherwise the group will work in the Windrush Gallery studio, watching a demo then creating your own painting, with help on-hand from David.

The day includes lunch in Windrush House (buffet style) and tea and cake at 4pm.
Students need to bring their own painting materials (a materials list is available when you book).

Day Course Fee: £90 per person, incl tuition, lunch and tea

To Book please request a Booking Form. Deposits of £25pp are required on booking (payment by BACS or cheque, or we can send a PayPal request for credit card payments).
